In view of applicant's amendment filed 5/15/2007 following office action is final. The limitation of heat treating the sheet in claims 1 and 9 is viewed as product by process, wherein the patentable weight is given to the product and not to the process by which it is made.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

2. Claims 1, 2, 5-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by OBUCHI (US 5,916,950).

The discussion of the disclosure of OBUCHI from paragraph 2 of the office action dated 1/30/2007 is incorporated here by reference.

3. Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by TANAKA (JP 2003-068387).

The discussion of the disclosure of TANAKA from paragraph 3 of the office action dated 1/30/2007 is incorporated here by reference.

As indicated earlier, this prior art can be overcome by filing certified translation of the priority documents.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

5. Claims 1, 2, 5-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over OBUCHI (US 5,916,950) in view of TERADA (US 6,326,440).

The discussion of the disclosure of OBUCHI and TERADA from paragraph 7 of the office action dated 1/30/2007 is incorporated here by reference.

6. Claims 3 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over OBUCHI (US 5,916,950) in view of IKADO (US 5,766,748)

The discussion of the disclosure of OBUCHI and IKADO from paragraph 8 of the office action dated 1/30/2007 is incorporated here by reference.

Response to the applicant's arguments

In their response filed on 4/30/2007 the applicants argued following:

a) The prior art of OBUCHI does not teach the new limitation of heat treatment.

The prior art of OBUCHI was utilized to reject article claims not process claims.

Applicant's new limitation puts claims in product by process form where patentable weight is given to the product and not to the process by which it is made. The examiner also would like to point out that the formation of an article from the sheet is also viewed as process. Any arguments regarding a process of making the article are considered moot and will not be further addressed for claims 1-8 and 10, 12 and 13.

b) The amount of polylactic polymer in OBUCHI is 97/3 and 80/20 % by mass. Therefore the prior art of OBUCHI does not teach the present invention.

With respect to the above argument, pending claims recite that the majority of the composition is polylactic acid. Examiner views amounts of above 50% as majority (more than half). Therefore, the above argument is not commensurate with the scope of the claims.

c) The prior art of TANAKA does not qualify as a prior art.

Per MPEP and examiner's statement in the first office action on the merits the applicants are required to file certified translation of the priority document. Simple statement as set forth in applicant's argument will not cut it.

The prior art of TERADA will not be addressed since the applicants did not argue examiner's grounds of rejection. Applicants only indicated that these disclosures should not be combined.

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

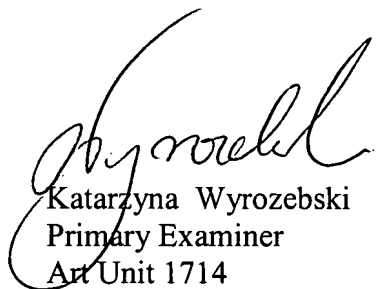

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
